

Elevator Pitch

Main Idea

Far away from the bounds of normal society, in the back alleys of the industrial asteroid belt, a place where even the cops are too scared to go, lies a giant pirate asteroid station.

A haven for the worst of the worst: murderers, thieves, smugglers, pirates, and a new startup.

Two brothers - Track and Lab, have finally gathered enough money to rent a space here to pursue their lifelong dream of starting their own news station.

Step one: Save enough money to move out of their mom's house? Completed!

Step two: Pay the shady landlord the last of the money you have? Completed!

Step Three: Find a story worth telling!
